

About PME technicians

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 07 July 2007 09:54 - Last Updated Tuesday, 06 January 2009 12:45

---

PME computer technicians are the persons who repair and maintain your computers and servers. Their responsibilities may extend to include building or configuring new hardware, installing and updating software packages, and creating and maintaining computer networks. Our technicians have passed certificate and degree programs designed to improve their skills, and computer repairs are aimed to ensure quality and professionalism.